

We are your friends, classmates, professors, colleagues, co-workers, and health care providers, and we are OUT and PROUD.

We are just a few of the talented and committed lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) individuals who contribute to the diversity and success of the UCSF community.

We invite you to join us in celebrating the Twenty-First Annual National Coming Out Day!

GENDER-VARIANT YOUTH: THEIR LIVES & NEEDS

Tuesday, October 13, 12pm, Health Sciences West 300

Stephanie Brill, co-author of The Transgender Child: A Handbook for Families and Professionals, discusses the often-overlooked experiences and needs of gender-variant youth and their families.

TRAINING RULES: LESBIANS IN COLLEGE SPORTS

Monday, October 19, 5:30-6:30pm, Nursing 225

This new documentary focuses on women's basketball coach Rene Portland of Penn State, whose unofficial training rules for 20+ years were: no drinking, no drugs, no lesbians.

LGBT HEALTH RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

Friday, October 23, 1:30-3:00pm, Laurel Heights Auditorium

UCSF's first-ever UCSF symposium on LGBT health research will feature an overview of LGBT health risks and disparities by UCSF LGBT Center Director Shane Snowdon and presentations by the UCSF Center of Excellence in Transgender Health, the Lesbian Health & Research Center, and the Center for AIDS Prevention Studies.

STRAIGHTLACED: HOW GENDER'S GOT US ALL TIED UP

Wednesday, Oct. 28: 5:30pm, Health Sciences West 302

Thursday, Oct. 29: 12pm, Health Sciences West 303

In this moving new documentary, teens who identify as straight, LGBT, and questioning open up their lives to the camera: choosing between "male" and "female" deodorant, deciding whether to go along with anti-gay taunts in the locker room, having the courage to take ballet, avoiding the restroom so they won't get beaten up, mourning the suicide of a classmate. Co-sponsored by UCSF Center for Gender Equity

LT. DAN CHOI:

A GAY ARMY VETERAN TELLS HIS STORY

Friday, November 6, 12pm, Health Sciences West 300

Celebrate Veterans Day early with this talk by Army Lt. Dan Choi, the West Point graduate and Iraq veteran who came out on national television--and now faces discharge. Lt. Choi is challenging the military's "Don't Ask, Don't Tell Policy," under which he could be discharged despite his fluency in Arabic and impressive service record. Co-sponsored by UCSF Chancellor's GLBT Advisory Committee

DIAGNOSING DIFFERENCE:

A DOCUMENTARY ON "GENDER IDENTITY DISORDER"

Friday, November 20, 12pm, Health Sciences West 301

13 diverse transgender people discuss how it feels to have their gender identity labeled by the Manual of Mental Disorders as a "gender identity disorder." Using the diagnosis as a departure point, the interviewees debunk myths about transgender identities, challenge stereotypical gender expectations, and offer insights into the language used to describe transgender lives.
